(INCORPORATED.)
CHAS. S. HARRIS, Editor.

Democrat newspaper devoted to the betterment of the city of Columbus and the people of Adair and adjacent counties.

Entered at the Columbia Postoffice as second class mail matter.

WED. JANUARY 28 1903.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For State Treasurer.

We are authorized to announce that H. HENNINGER, Wayne county, a candidate for the office of State Treasurer, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

Henry Wilkerson, charged with poisoning his wife, was given a life sentence at Muncifordville last week. Before he was charged with the horrible deed he stood well in Hart County.

The South in all probability will again be visited by the yellow fever plague this year. It has already made its appearance at Vera Cruz, Mexico, and a number of deaths have occurred.

Charley Finley is not very well pleased with Henry E. Yontey's visit to the grand jury and he writes another card. Don't be alarmed, Charley, the Kentucky authorities will get on to your course in due time.

Judge H. W. Bruce, who was a member of the Confederate Congress and an honored citizen of the city of Louisville, died at his late residence last Thursday morning. His ability as a lawyer and pure life was well known throughout Kentucky.

The tobacco growers in the South are up against the trusts. They have laid before the President and Attorney General a complaint that the combines are ruining the price of their product, especially in Virginia and North Carolina.

The recent announcement that Governor General Taft, of the Philippines, may be appointed to the supreme bench has caused considerable comment in these islands. The people generally are adverse to having General Taft leave them and petitions have been sent to President Roosevelt urging him to allow them to retain their governor.

Henry E. Yontey denies the statement made by Charles Finley in an interview at Indianapolis to the effect that his confession to the grand jury of Franklin county was brought about by torture or ill-treatment. He asserts, also, that he has received no promise of a pardon or commutation of sentence and that his story was told freely, frankly and voluntarily.

Three negroes were among the earliest guests to arrive at the White House reception for the judiciary last Thursday night. They were cordially greeted by President Roosevelt. Southern Congressmen and Senators present left the reception, some of them declaring that they would attend no more receptions if negroes were to be invited.

Last Wednesday Gov. Beckham received the fifth annual report of the State Prison Commissioner. The report showed that 1,740 convicts were under contract. Both prisons show a deficit on account of improvements made, but that of Eddyville is the smallest in the history of the institution. The prisoners are divided as follows: 1,275 at Frankfort, 549 at Eddyville.

The following United States Senators were elected by their respective Legislative bodies last week: J. Hopkins, Illinois; Orville H. Platt, Connecticut; H. C. Hanebrong, North Dakota; Jacob H. Gallinger, New Hampshire; R. A. Alger, Michigan; Boies Penrose, Pennsylvania; A. B. Kittredge, South Dakota; W. J. Stone, Missouri; T. C. Platt, New York; Reed Smoot, Utah; James P. Clarke, Arkansas.

Every sensible person likes to hear a well-informed man expound the Scriptures, giving his reasons for the faith that is in him, but their is too much non-sensical foolishness being dished out in some localities. A correspondent to the Glasgow Times, writing from Glasgow Junction, and speaking of a man now doing that town, says: "He preaches daily on the streets to whoever will listen. He has the peculiar proclivity of leaping high into the air at the most unexpected times during his discourses. He declared last Saturday that it was no trouble to jump when you had the second blessing, and, to prove the fact, he jumped four times in rapid succession about two-thirds as high as the salt-barrel which he was using as a pulpit. After finishing his services he went about twenty paces up the street, and, looking back and seeing the crowd still looking at him, hallooed out, 'Glory glory to God!' and went through some more original acrobatic performances. He promises to be here as long as God will allow."

Now that the tariff tax of 67 cents per ton on coal has been temporarily removed by way of favor to the consumer, the Chicago Chronicle wonders why the tariff on meat is permitted to remain. The tariff on cattle is from $2. to $2.75 per head; on swine $1.50 per head; sheep, 75 cents to $1.60 per head; bacon and ham, 5 cents per pound; beef, veal, mutton and pork, 2 cents per pound. The Chronicle further points out that the tariff on wool ranges from 50 to 100 per cent. It pretends to be surprised because the same consideration that has been given to the coal consumers has not been given to the consumers of meat and to the consumers of wool.

An Indiana man sends Caleb Powers two hundred dollars to aid in his next trial. He also adds that a "just God is watching over him." To which the Bardstown Record adds: "Caleb Powers will have a much fairer trial for his life than was given Wm. Goebel, and the God who will look on at the trial is the same God who saw Wm. Goebel murdered."

Mr. Harry Sommers, editor of the Elizabethtown News, will leave on a tour in February. He will visit principal points in Europe, Asia and Africa. He is an entertaining writer and his letters to his paper will be read with much interest. The newspaper fraternity of Kentucky wish him a pleasant journey and a safe return.

The St. Louis Republic humorously remarks concerning the very latest invention: "Marconi may live to hear of professional prize fights being conducted by his wireless telegraph system. In fact, the time may come when Kipling's poems will be flashed around the world and prevent grave international disturbances."

A representative Republican of this county was in the News office a few days ago, and in discussing the political situation and especially what is going on at Washington he said: "You ought to fight the trusts and combines with fire—give them fire in every issue of your paper. They are ruining the country."

A Democratic primary will be held throughout Kentucky on Saturday, May 9 for the purpose of nominating candidates for State offices. The call issued by the committee will be published in the News at an early date.

The Republicans of Casey county, in Convention, last Monday, nominated Capt. Ed. Polley to represent Casey and Russell in the next Legislature, and Mr. James Gibony for re-election to the office of Circuit Court Clerk of Casey.

The trust magnates are swarming about Washington, asking for a stronger wall between them and the masses. They are for any measure that will cause the consumer to pay more for their wares.

The attention of our readers is called to the advertisement of W. F. Jeffries & Son. They have a splendid stock in their lines and invite their friends to call and see them.

We learn that Tom Sullivan, the efficient sheriff of Russell county, is looking business, and will be ready for Court when it opens at Jamestown the third Monday in next month.

Five stores were broken into and robbed at Liberty last Wednesday night. Blood hounds were put upon the trail and they went to the home of Tom Anderson, of color, who was arrested.

Mr. Ashill is making some slight changes at different points in the survey from here to Campbellville. The Coffey Bros. & Robertson sold to same party a harness horse for $80.

Quite a number of young people assembled at the residence of Mr. Robt. Hudson last Friday night, and for several hours spent delightful times. Miss Minnie Hudson and Miss Belle Mitchell assisted in entertaining.

We understand that Mr. Sam F. White, who went to Louisville last week, was given cases in a job-printing establishment in that city. Mr. White is employed by a large cabinet manufacturing establishment.

At a business meeting of the Baptist Church this city, a few days ago, a decision was reached to send a delegation to the annual conference at once. A committee to open correspondence was appointed, and the members confidently believe that they will secure a suitable man as an early date.

Newton Smith and Martin McCallister, of this county, are charged with making chicken, with Mrs. W. H. Hatcher, of color. They sold the chickens to M. L. Grison & Co., Ills. The grand jury investigated the case Monday and doubtless true bills were returned.

A practical engineer recently closed at the Presbyterian Church, Campbellville, with the following additions: Messrs. J. T. Vaughan, H. B. Turner, Messrs. L. E. Buchanan, Lena P. Taylor, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. H. H. Hatcher, and Mr. J. C. Durham. Besides the addresses, the members of the Church were greatly revived.

Our representative was in Greensboro last Thursday and Friday. He says the people of that community are fully conversant with the merits of the cause in favor of an electric line from Columbia to that place, and they are doing everything in their power to aid and to encourage. Mr. A. H. will be invited to come at once to Greensboro.

Mr. Sam Breeding, who lives on Green River, and who is a prosperous farmer and trader, is buying stock. He has already gathered quite a number and expects to purchase more. The price of stock is falling at $1.75 on the river and Mr. Breeding has about eight hundred barrels which he expects to sell by his hog.

Mr. Reuben Dunbar, an old and highly respected citizen of Russell county, is lying dangerously ill at his residence at Horse Shoe Bottom. Mr. Dunbar has been in the mercantile business for many years, though for some time he has been unable to look after his affairs on account of being blind. He has always been a most sympathetic man, ever ready to help an unfortunate neighbor.

DEVELOPING.

Henry B. Yontsey concluded his testimony before the Franklin county circuit court last Saturday, after a seven-day's examination. He was remanded to the custody of the warden of the penitentiary, with instructions that he be held in readiness to again go before the grand jury whenever called for by the commonwealth.

J. B. Matthews, assistant secretary of state under Caleb Powers, has given a statement declaring that Taylor, Finley, Culton, Yontsey and Goldee knew of the assassination of Goebel and that he had given information to the commonwealth to that effect.

One of the grand-jurors of the Franklin circuit court, has been approached with an offer of bribery. The matter was reported to Judge Cantwell, and the accused party disappeared. It is thought that the alleged briber was a reporter for a Cincinnati paper.

The investigations of the grand-jury will continue through the present week.

Leander Guffy, son of Judge R. L. D. Guffy, and tipstaff of the court of appeals, is said to have left the state and located in Indiana.

It is conceded that the developments of the past two weeks will bear a most important relation to the new trial of Jim Howard in Frankfort in April, and Caleb Powers in Georgetown in May.—Glasgow Times.

OUT IN MISSOURI.

A Missouri editor who is about to pull up and leave for lack of support sarcastically remarks in parting that editors don't need money. Don't worry about the editor, he says. "He has a charter from the State to act as door-man for the community. He'll get the paper out somehow, and stand up for you when you run for office and lie about your pigeon-toed daughter's tacky wedding, and blow about your big-footed sons when they get a four-dollar-a-week job, and weep over your shriveled soul when it is released from your grasping body and smile at your giddy wife's second marriage. He'll get along. The Lord only knows how—but the editor will get there somehow."—Ex.

The Eleventh district has received condemnation and bitter approbation from various sections of the state. Many bitter letters have been said of our hapless region. Our people have been deceived into supporting men and newspapers who have not guarded our honor. The vicious press will not be held guiltless in the great day of reckoning for the part they have played in leading a patriotic people astray. The selfish politicians will not always evade the responsibility for leading a generous and dependent people into endorsement of their false attitude towards the tribunals of the state. It will yet require years to efface the hate and revenge that has been implanted and fostered in the minds of our people. Judged by the lawless record of the few leaders, it will take time for the restoration of a virtuous section of home-ruled, hospitable, brave people to the confidence of the brethren of the same class in more favored regions. But the day, in coming. Be patient.—Somerset Journal.

MISTAKES OF LIFE TO AVOID.
Not to yield to unmanly emotions.
To endeavor to avoid an disposition, alike.

To look for perfection in one's own actions.
To expect uniformity of opinion to this world.
To measure the enjoyment of others by our own.
To expect to be able to understand everything.

To believe only what our finite minds can grasp.
To look for judgment and experience in youth.

Not to make allowances for the infirmities of others.
To consider everything impossible that we cannot perform.

To worry ourselves and others with what cannot be remedied.

Not to alleviate all that needs alleviation as far as lies in our power.
It is a great mistake to set up our own standard of right and wrong and judge people accordingly.

Tried to Conceal It.
It's the old story of "murder will out" only in this case there's no crime. A woman feels run down, has backache or dyspepsia and thinks it's nothing and tries to hide it until she finally breaks down. Don't deceive yourself. Take Electric Bitters at once. It has a reputation for curing Stomach, Liver and Kidney trouble and will revitalize your whole system. The worst forms of those maladies will quickly yield to the curative power of Electric Bitters. Only 50c, and guaranteed by all druggists.

KENTUCKY NEWS.

The Goebel reward commission met last Monday.

The Court of Appeals has overruled the motion for a rehearing of the Powers and Howard appeals.

The Knox oil men are complaining because of alleged excessive valuation of their property for taxation.

The old Barbark factory in Henderson has been selected as the site for the new public building.

Red Hingst, wanted on a murder charge, has been arrested in Arkansas and taken to Henderson.

At Central City, Mrs. T. Q. Portney's dress ignited as she was passing by the fire under a kettle in her yard, and she was badly burned that she died several hours later.

According to J. B. Matthews, First Assistant Secretary of State under Caleb Powers, Henry Yontsey was to have been private Secretary to Taylor had the Legislature decided in his favor for Governor.

In defense of his mother, Thomas Whitman, aged thirteen, shot and killed his aunt, Miss Mary Phipps, aged thirty-five, near Hopkinsville. Miss Phipps was insane, and in a fit of rage had attacked Mrs. Whitman.

A business meeting of the Kentucky Press Association was held at Louisville last Monday, at which only matters directly pertaining to the interests of the newspaper fraternity were discussed.

Enter Barnes, of Montgomery county, drew $400 out of the bank and started for Crawfordville, and, to his brother. When he arrived at Louisville he decided to give light and in the "red light" district was robbed of $480.

In the circuit court at New Castle the damage suit of Mrs. Frank Bots against Mr. J. J. Hartford, for squandering her hand, the jury awarded her one dollar, and put the cost on Mr. Hartford, aggregating about $200, and alleged that Mr. Hartford's powerful grip permanently injured her hand.

James Riddell, a member of the Franklin county grand jury, was approached by a man who gave him a name as McDowell, and was offered $400 for information as to what Yontsey told in the grand jury room. He claimed to be a detective from Indianapolis, and said the information would be used as the basis of a plot to kidnap Taylor and return him to Kentucky. It seems very certain that "McDowell" was a newspaper correspondent from Cincinnati. He left Frankfort suddenly. The Sheriff was directed to secure his capture if possible.

J. B. Matthews, of Somerset, who was Assistant Secretary of State under Caleb Powers, has made a statement in regard to the assassination of Gov. William Goebel. He names W. S. Taylor, Charles E. Pyles, Henry B. Yontsey, W. H. Culton and Warrent Goldee as the men he believes responsible for the murder conspiracy. Matthews says he has told all he knows to the Commonwealth's Attorney. He expresses the belief that Caleb Powers is innocent, though he admits that others than those he names may have figured in the conspiracy.

"OBEY" IN THE MARRIAGE VOW.
There are strong-minded women who insist on the omission of "obey" from the wife's vow in the marriage ceremony, and magistracy studiously avoid the use of the word, being apparently fearful of wounding the sensibilities of the bride at the altar. A Western clergyman the other day said that he had dropped the word "obey" from the marriage ceremony, "because a man has a right to wifely obedience only so long as he deserves it. Would retaining the word secure to an unworthy husband a continuance of wifely obedience? Certainly not." The marriage vow, in the same sentence, requires the wife to "love" and "honor" the husband. No objection is being made to those requirements. Yet it is not to be contended that the husband who dishonors himself must continue to be honored by the wife because of her vow. The husband who proves recalcitrant to his great duty, who is found to be a thief, a murderer or a drunkard after marriage, cannot possibly be honored by a good woman.

"Obey," as it is used in the marriage ceremony, does not contemplate a slavish compliance on the part of the wife with the wishes or commands of the husband. There is no obligation on the part of the wife to do that which she knows to be wrong because her husband tells her to do it. "Love, honor and obey," says the ritual. The three specifications are to be taken in connection with each other. The woman who loves and honors a man will obey his wishes, even before they are put into words; and it is the same on the part of the man. He will give the queen of the household precisely the same obedience that she gives him—the obedience of love. It is the desire of each to please the other. A Queen of England once told her husband, "I will give you any amount of obedience if you will give me an equal amount of love." She understood the word in its highest meaning and knew that it would not be unbecoming a queen to render her husband the obedience that was the sincere desire of her heart to give. The late Queen Victoria, it is said, insisted upon "obey" being retained in the ceremony that united her with the husband she idolized, because she wanted to be married as a woman, not as a queen.

In the household where there is real love and affection, there are no such things as commands and obedience in an offensive or oppressive sense. Wishes are anticipated wherever they may be, and obedience is yielded not through fear or because of the wondering of the marriage formula, but because it gives mutual pleasure to wife and husband.—Ex.

A Marvellous Invention.
Wonders never cease. A machine has been invented that will, paste and hang wall paper. The field of inventions and discoveries seems to be unlimited. Notable among great discoveries is Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. It has done a world of good for weak lungs and saved many a life. Thousands have used and conquered Grip, Bronchitis, Pneumonia and Consumption. Their general verdict is: "It's the best and most reliable medicine for throat and lung troubles. Every 50c and $1.00 bottle is guaranteed by all druggists. Trial bottles free at all druggists."

If you ever used Dr. Cass's Cough Syrup in your family for yourself? If you have not, don't judge it by other cough syrups that you have used, for there is no comparison. Dr. Cass's Cough Syrup cures by relieving the lungs of inflammation. It never dries up or stops the cough without removing the cause. Sold by M. Craven.

If pistol duels on street cars and in public places are to become the order, everybody will have to be addressed as "Colonel," "Captain" or "General," according to the number of firearms he carries and his record as a marksman. One good way to stop street battles is to fix a heavy punishment against carrying instruments of war.—St. Louis Republic.

WONDERFUL NERVE.
Is displayed by many a man enduring pains of accidental Cuts, Wounds, Bruises Burns Scalds, Sore feet or stiff joints. But there is no need for it. Bucklen's Arnica Salve will kill the pain and cure the trouble. It's the best salve on earth for Piles, too. 25c at all druggists.

President Roosevelt has acted harshly and with a suggestion of the autocratic spirit in abolishing the Post Office at Indianapolis, Miss., rather than accept the resignation of a woman Postmaster to whom the citizens of that town objected, but who had not been threatened or intimidated in any manner. The smallest American village has rights which even the most strenuous American President must respect, and Indianapolis's right to a post office has now been sacrificed in a politician's play for personal profit as a candidate for the presidential nomination.—St. Louis Republic.

There are two good rules which ought to be written on every heart: Never to believe anything bad about anybody unless you positively know it to be true; never to tell even that unless you feel that it is absolutely necessary and that God is listening while you tell it.

A DOZEN DON'TS.

Don't waste time disputing the gas meter.

Don't forget to black the heels of your shoes.

Don't trust to luck when you are able to work.

Don't growl at the children and talk carelessly at the dog.

Don't fail to keep every promise you make to your little ones.

Don't forget to mail the letter your wife gave you this morning.

Don't neglect your own business by prying into your neighbors'.

Don't exhaust your supply of good nature before you get home.

Don't grumble at fate until you have exhausted every effort to sue it.

Don't accuse your wife of extravagance as long as your cigar bill is larger than your butcher's bill.

Don't try to make your wife believe it costs you to walk seven miles around a billiard table after a hard day's work.

Don't forget that advice is the cheapest thing in the world to give away and the hardest thing in the world to accept and set upon.—Commoner.

Domestic Troubles.
It is exceptional to find a family where there are no domestic ruptures occasionally, but these can be lessened by having Dr. King's New Life Pills around. Much trouble they save by their great work in the Stomach and Liver troubles. They not only relieve you but, cure 25c, by all druggists.
